17. The Baptism of Jesus

Then Jesus came from Galilee to the Jordan to be baptized by John [The Baptist]. But John tried to deter [H]im, saying, "I need to be baptized by you, and do you come to me?"

Jesus replied, "Let it be so now; it is proper for us to do this to fulfill all righteousness." Then John consented.

As soon as Jesus was baptized, he went up out of the water. At that moment heaven was opened, and [H]e saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove and lighting on [H]im.

And a voice from heaven said, "This is my Son, whom I love, with him I am well pleased."
