21. Hebrews in the Wilderness

But God led the people about, through the way of the wilderness of the Red Sea: and the children of Israel went up harnessed out of the land of Egypt. And Moses took the bones of Joseph with him... (Exodus 13:18-19a KJV)

And the Lord went before them by day in a pillar of a cloud...and by night in a pillar of fire ... (Exodus 13:21 KJV)

God Provides

...the Lord shall give you in the evening flesh to eat, and in the morning bread to the full...And it came to pass, that at [eve] the quails came up and covered the camp: and in the morning the dew lay round ...and when the dew that lay was gone up, behold, upon the face of the wilderness there lay a small round thing...it is manna... (Exodus 16:8,13-14,15)

Strike the rock, and water will come out of it for the people to drink. (Exodus 17:6b NIV)

The Law

I am thy Lord, Which have brought thee out of Egypt, out of the house of bondage. Thou shall have no other gods before me. [The Ten Commandments] (Exodus 20:1-17)

Moses said to the people, "Do not be afraid. God has come to test you, so that the fear of God will be with you to keep you from sinning." (Exodus 20:20 NIV)
