23. Jesus Tempted in the Desert

Then was Jesus led up of the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted by the devil. And when he had fasted forty days and forty nights, he was afterward an hungered.

And when the tempter came to him, he said, If thou be the Son of God, command that these stones be made bread. But He answered and said, "It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceededth out of the mouth of God."

Then the devil taketh him up into the holy city, and setteth him on a pinnacle of the temple. And saith unto him, If thou be the Son of God, cast thyself down: for it is written, He shall give his angels charge concerning thee, and in their hands they shall bear thee up, lest at anytime thou dash thy foot against a stone. Jesus said unto him, "It is written again, Thou shall not tempt the Lord thy God."

Again, the devil taketh him up into an exceeding high mountain, and showeth him all the kingdoms of the world, and the glory of them; And saith unto him, All these things will I give you if thou wilt fall down and worship me. Then saith Jesus unto him, "Get the hence, Satan; for it is written, Thou shalt worship the Lord they God, and him only shalt thou serve.

Then the devil leaveth him, and, behold, angels came and ministered unto him. (Matthew 4:1-11 KJV)
