25. Faith

"...If you have faith as a grain of mustard seed, ye shall say unto this mountain, Remove hence to yonder place; and it shall remove; and nothing shall be impossible unto you. (Matthew 17:20 KJV)

So then faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God. (Romans 10:17 KJV)

For we walk by faith and not by sight... (Romans 5:7 KJV)

Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen. Through faith we understand that the worlds were framed y the word of God, so that things which are seen were not made of things which do appear. (Hebrews 11:1, 3 KJV)

And without faith it is impossible to please God, because anyone who comes to him must believe that he exists and that he rewards those who earnestly seek him. (Hebrews 11:6 NIV)

What good is it, my brother, if a man claims to have faith but has no deeds? Can such faith save him? (James 2:14 NIV)... For as the body without the spirit is dead, so faith without works is dead also. (James 2:26 KJV)
