41. Jesus Feeds the 5000

Jesus crossed to the far shore of the Sea of Galilee (that is, the Sea of Tiberias), and a great crowd of people followed him because they saw the miraculous signs he had performed on the sick. (John 6:1-2 NIV)

When Jesus landed and saw a large crowd, he had compassion on them, because they were like sheep without a shepherd. So he began to teach them many things. (Mark 6:34 NIV)

[Jesus] said to Philip, "Where shall we buy bread for these people to eat?" He asked only to test him, for he already had in mind what he was going to do. Philip answered him, "Eight months wages would not buy enough bread for each one to have a bite!" (John 6:5-7 NIV)

"Here is a boy with five small barley loaves and two small fish, but how far will they go among so many?" (John 6:9 NIV)

[Jesus] said to his disciples, "Have them sit down in groups of about fifty each." The disciples did so and everybody sat down. Taking the five loaves and the two fish and looking up to heaven, he gave thanks and broke them. Then he gave them to his disciples to set before the people. (Luke 9:14-16 NIV)

When they had all had enough to eat, he said to his disciples, "Gather the pieces that are left over. Let nothing be wasted." So they gathered them and filled twelve baskets with the pieces ...

After the people saw the miraculous sign that Jesus did, they began to say, "Surely this is the Prophet who is to come into the world." Jesus, knowing that they intended to come and make him king by force, withdrew again to a mountain by himself. (John 6:12-15 NIV)
