

2. Adam, The First Man

And God said, Let us make man in our image, after our likeness: and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth. So God created ... him; male and female created he them. And God blessed them, and God said unto them, Be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the earth, and subdue it ...

... God formed man of the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and man became a living soul. (Genesis 1:26-28, 2:7 KJV) ... The LORD God took the man and put him in the Garden of Eden to work it and take care of it. And the LORD God commanded the man, "You are free to eat from any tree in the garden; but you must not eat from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, for when you eat of it you will surely die."

... The LORD God said, "It is not good for the man to be alone. I will make a helper suitable for him." ... But for Adam no suitable helper was found ... God caused the man to fall into a deep sleep ... he took one of the man's ribs and closed up the place with flesh. Then the LORD God made a woman from the rib he had taken out of the man, and he brought her to the man. The man said, "This is now bone of my bones and flesh of my flesh; she shall be called 'woman,' for she was taken out of man." For this reason a man will leave his father and mother and be united to his wife, and they will become one flesh ...

... When the woman saw that the fruit of the tree was good for food and pleasing to the eye, and also desirable for gaining wisdom, she took some and ate it. She also gave some to her husband, who was with her, and he ate it. (Genesis 2:15-24; 3:6 NIV)

... Who told you that you were naked?" the LORD God asked. "Have you eaten the fruit I commanded you not to eat?" "Yes," Adam admitted, "but it was the woman you gave me who brought me the fruit, and I ate it." And to Adam he said, "Because you listened to your wife and ate the fruit ... I have placed a curse on the ground ... you will struggle to scratch a living from it ...

Now Adam slept with his wife, Eve, and she became pregnant ... she gave birth to Cain, ... Later she gave birth to a second son ... Abel. ... Abel became a shepherd, while Cain was a farmer ... she gave birth to another son ... Seth, ... Adam lived another 800 years, and he had other sons and daughters. He died at the age of 930. (Genesis 3:11-12, 17; 4:1-2, 25; 5:4-5 NLT)
