50. God Favors the Righteous, Part 2

Psalm 14:4-5 AMP

Have all the workers of iniquity no knowledge, who eat up my people as they eat bread and who do not call on the Lord?

There they shall be in great fear [literally--dreading a dread], for God is with the generation of the [uncompromisingly] righteous (those upright and in right standing with Him).

Psalm 18:19-21 KJV

He brought me forth also into a large place; he delivered me, because he delighted in me.

The LORD rewarded me according to my righteousness; according to the cleanness of my hands hath he recompensed me.

For I have kept the ways of the LORD, and have not wickedly departed from my God.

Psalm 33:1 KJV

Rejoice in the LORD, O ye righteous: for praise is comely for the upright.

Psalm 3729-33 KJV

The righteous shall inherit the land, and dwell therein for ever.

The mouth of the righteous speaketh wisdom, and his tongue talketh of judgment.

The law of his God is in his heart; none of his steps shall slide.

The wicked watcheth the righteous, and seeketh to slay him.

The LORD will not leave him in his hand, nor condemn him when he is judged.

Psalm 55:22 KJV

Cast thy burden upon the LORD, and he shall sustain thee: he shall never suffer the righteous to be moved.
