GIL Publications celebrates its Fifth Anniversary with new publishing service, website and newsletter for Christian Authors.

In celebration of five years in Christian Publishing, GIL Publications is launching a new author publishing service, website and newsletter for aspiring Christian authors.

January 28, 2008 – NEW YORK CITY – GIL Publications is announcing the launch of their new author publishing service, website and newsletter for Christian authors PublishChristianBooks.com will begin operation on February 1, 2008. This low-cost service will make it easy for Christian authors to publish their books.

GIL Publications' new Christian Author Publishing Service is uniquely distinct from others publishers in the industry as it was designed by a Christian author for other Christian authors. Their motto: “Give us your manuscript – and we will give you fifty books.” GIL Publications actually supplies authors with 50 books. This is in addition to the manuscript preparation service, ISBN, copyright, library catalog number, book layout, cover design and marketing services.

The goal of this GIL Publications website is to “help authors write, publish and sell their Christian books.” PublishChristianBooks.com will feature helpful articles, pricing information, books for aspiring Christian authors and a newsletter to be archived on the site. Well-known personalities in the publishing industry are being scheduled to contribute articles for the site.

The newsletter, PublishChrist will feature reviews of helpful websites for authors, book reviews, articles and other industry helpful information.

GIL Publications is the creator and publisher of the popular Bible Word Search book series that features word search puzzles made from accompanying scriptures.
